DOUGLAS, Wyo, April 19.—Kid Donnelly, of Powder River Crossing, brought word last night to Antelope Springs, thirty miles north of Douglas, that the Store men were camped on the Caspar road, on North Powder river, sixty miles north of Caspar. Two men, named Nate Champion and Ray, were reported killed on Powder river. Donnelly reports the rustlers are flying in every direction and attempting to escape from the country Three of them passed through Antelope Springs yesterday. When Donnelly left Powder River Crossing there had been no casualties in the stockmen's party.

DOUGLAS, Wyo, April 12.—Sheriff Angus, of Johnson county, has wired the sheriff of Converse county, saying there had been a fight and directing him to arrest all fugitives Yesterday two horsemen came to a ranch near Douglas and tried to exchange their jaded horses for fresh ones. They said they had been with the store expedition which went north. One of the men had a bullet wound in the arm. They were refused a fresh horse and pushed on. Two deputy sheriffs followed, but the trail was lost where the men forded the Platte river. The authorities are now guarding all the bridges and fords on the Platte river west and north of Douglas

CASPAR, Wyo, April 12.—A man from Riverside, who arrived late last night, reports that the 150 deputies of Sheriff Angus attempted to arrest the invading army and killed twenty-eight of them and lost eighteen of their own men.

"HANG THE SCOUNDREL!"

Is the Shout of an Infuriated Mob in Search of Stottsberry.

NEWARK, Ohio, April 12—Yesterday afternoon, while the seven-year-old child of A T. Alward, Edna by name, was in an outbuilding, she was seized and horribly treated by George Stottsberry, a former ball player, aged about thirty years. He was arrested and lodged in the city prison At about 9:30 p. m. a mob surrounded the jail, forced open the southside door and hundreds of infuriated people rushed in, yelling "hang the scoundrel." Owing to the absence of a leader among the mob there seemed to be no organization, and at 11 o'clock Mayor Bell and the police force, by a flank movement, succeeded in clearing the jail and saving the prisoner. Officers are now guarding the jail and an attack may be renewed at any moment.

FOURTEEN FAMILIES HOMELESS.

A Fire in Italian Quarters at Chicago Causes Great Loss.

CHICAGO, April 12—Fire, which originated in a saloon, swept through the Italian quarter in the vicinity of Clark and Taylor streets at 4 o'clock this morning, and made fourteen families homeless. They will leave for that city on the 11th of June, and we confidently expect them to return with one of the prizes. This popular organization will give a military reception at the Morton club rooms Tuesday, April 9.

J. J. Lamb, of the machinists' union, did not return to Indianapolis last evening, as he expected, hence the important meeting of the striking machinists in that city was postponed until Thursday evening. The Indianapolis papers this morning state that all is quiet in the shops and that no new developments are expected until Mr. Lamb makes known the result of his investigations at Fort Wayne, Columbus and Logansport. It is the opinion of a majority of Fort Wayne machinists that the men here will not be asked to go out on a strike.

At a meeting held at the Y. M. C. A. rooms last evening the Outing club was organized. Chairman Hunting, of the gymnasium committee, presided over the meeting By-laws were read and adopted. The club is composed of five sections for engaging in foot ball, base ball, lawn tennis, cycling and general athletics. The base ball section organized with the following committee of management: J. M. Crowe, Fred Hunting and Eph P. Daily. This section will begin practicing Saturday afternoon Any member wishing to join the Outing club may call on Dr. J. Hawks, physical director of the association.

No place in the city presented a more animated appearance last night than the railroad department of the Y. M. C. A. building, every available room being occupied by patrons and committees, several of the latter being in session at the same time. The regular monthly meeting of the committee of management developed the fact that the month of March shows a decided gain in nearly every line of work over March of last year. The Ladies' auxiliary were also in session arranging the bill of fare and providing ways and means for the great Easter supper to be served on Friday evening next, from 5 to 8 o'clock.

Contractor C. Boseker, who secured the contract for the new city hall, will have work commenced on the structure in the very near future. The Michigan stone to be used is the same as that which entered into the construction of the Old bank, the government building and other buildings, and will be furnished from the S. B. Bond quarries at Stony Point. By the adoption of Wing & Mahurin's plans the city will have a magnificently designed building, that will combine beauty, utility and convenience It will be a credit to the city and will excel in advantages many municipal buildings of other cities that cost a good deal more money. The drawings for the city hall have been so completely drawn that the committee can easily understand every detail, and it is the unanimous sentiment of the members thereof that nothing is lacking to make them meet every requirement

NEGROES DROWNED.

Over One Hundred of Them Perish in the Tombigbee River Floods.

COLUMBUS, Miss., April 12.—Later advices from the low lands just south of here indicate that over one hundred negroes have been drowned in this county. It will be weeks before anything like a correct estimate of the loss of cattle can be obtained. The bodies of horses, mules and cows are constantly floating down the Tombigbee. For miles on both sides of the river there remain nothing but poverty and desolation. Dr. J D. Hutcherson, one of the largest planters in this state, has just returned from one of his plantations in the northern portion of the county and reports great destitution from the overflow of the Butahatchie. He lost seventy-five head of cattle and one of his laborers. A K. Keith, living a few miles south, saved his mules and cattle by putting them in the parlor and dining room where the water was only two feet deep His family and fifty negroes were in the same story of the residence. The waters have receded about seven feet and continued to fall slowly last night. Most of the county bridges have been swept away and it will be weeks before ordinary traffic will be regularly resumed. A cold rain has fallen almost constantly since Sunday night. No mail has been received here since Thursday. Only one body has been recoverrd

ST. VINCENT, Minn., April 12.—The river is now over the banks and has began flooding the towns of St Vincent and Emerson. The river is now forty feet above low water mark, and is still rising, and the ice has not yet gone out. A rise of one foot would cover the town of Emerson. The indications are that the disastrous flood of 1886 will be repeated.

A HORRIBLE FIND.

The Mutilated Body of a Girl Picked Up in a Lonely Park.

PITTSBURG, Pa., April 12.—At 8 o'clock this morning the body of a girl, apparently seventeen years of age, was found in a lonely spot on a hill side in Schenly park. The body was terribly mutilated, the head being entirely severed from the body.

The body was found by Fred Fulmer, lying on the frozen ground on a lonely hillside near the main entrance to the park and about thirty feet from the tracks of the Junction railroad. The head was lying in a pool of blood about fifty feet distant from the body, while her button shoes were found about half way between the head and the body. The cut in the trunk is as clean as though done with a sharp knife. The left side of the face and lower jaw however are terribly mashed and suggests the idea that the girl had been run over by a passing train.

The police do not accept this theory and believe that the girl was first murdered and then perhaps the head placed where a train would run over it. The only other marks of violence are a slight bruise on the right hip and a scratch on the left elbow. When Fulmer discovered the body he notified the Nineteenth ward police station and the officers removed the remains to the morgue Detectives were sent out and about 8 o'clock placed Ludwig Frewskiski, a Polander, under arrest. They also ascertained that the girl was a domestic employed in the family of H. Traliski, a dairyman, and that her name was Mary Chertinski.

The story told by Traliski is that, about 4 o'clock this morning his wife went to the girl's room to call her. When she opened the door Mrs Traliski discovered Frewskiski, who is employed by a neighboring dairyman, and the girl sleeping in the same bed Mrs. Traliski drove them from her house. They started across the park toward the city. The police found Frewkiski at work at the dairy where he is employed.

He vigorously resisted arrest and professes entire ignorance of the tragedy. Mary Chertinski was nineteen years old, five feet high, and weighs 125 pounds. Her long, dark brown hair is matted with blood and presents a sickening sight. She is said to have been a very pretty girl. The police believe that a murder has been committed. The coroner has ordered a post mortem examination

CLEVELAND AND HARRISON

Will Again Lead Their Parties in the Presidential Campaign.

MILWAUKEE, Wis, April 12—Congressman John L. Mitchell, who was recently elected chairman of the democratic congressional committee, is home on business for a few days. He says that the Hill move for the presidency is growing less in interest and activity every day. He says politicians at Washington think Hill ruined what chances he had by making his southern canvass, which is generally looked upon as having been in poor taste. Mr. Mitchell says it is now generally conceded that Mr Harrison will be renominated and he thinks the race will be between Harrison and Cleveland again Cleveland is gaining strength daily. Next to Cleveland Congressman Mitchell regards Senator Vilas as the most available man for the presidency

FRIGHTFUL TRAGEDY.

Jealousy Leads a Young Man to Murder and the Criminal's Cell.

LONDON, April 12.—A frightful tragedy has disturbed the normal quiet of southwestern Wiltshire. Louis Hamilton shot and instantly killed Henry Richards, a young man who had caused the affections of Lizzie Adams to be transferred from the former to himself. A posse pursued Hamilton to a woods, where he shot and instantly killed Police Sergeant Muldin, after which Hamilton was siezed and disarmed. He was carried to the jail, which is guarded by a large force of police to prevent violence to the prisoner. Lizzie Adams, the fickle young lady, is critically ill, on account of the shock, and fears of her recovery are entertained

BASE BALL.

Philadelphia Cranks Say They Have the Winning Club.

PHILADELPHIA, April 12.—The outcome of the professional base ball season which will be inaugurated here this afternoon by the New York and Philadelphia clubs will be awaited with considerable interest by local enthusiasts, to whom the national game is the sport of the sports. It would be idle to attempt to deny the fact that the strife and unseemly wrangles of the past two years have gone a great way in weaning from the game many of its most ardent supporters and simply because peace has been declared it does not follow that these supporters will be won back to their old allegiance. Their patronage will have to be cultivated, Fortunately the Phillies have secured a team worthy of patronage—one around which cranks of all shades of opinion can gather and cheer and "pull" for. The present Philadelphia team is undoubtedly the best ball team that has ever sought for base ball honors in this city, and but for the palpable weakness in the pitching department it would in all likelihood have something decided to say in the disposition of the pennant.

ASLEEP ON THE TRACK!

Calvin Fraizer, While Drunk, Has a Narrow Escape From Death—The Day in Court.

Drunk, which sends so many men to untimely graves, came pretty near being the cause of ending the earthly existence of Calvin Frazer last night

He is a victim of the flowing bowl and for the last few weeks has drawn but few sober breaths. Last night he had a sort of extraordinary jag on him, and in his maudlin condition about midnight, wandered along the Nickel Plate railroad track, near the Calhoun street crossing

Here sleep stole silently upon him, and unmindful of danger, laid down with his head resting upon one of the steel rails, and passed off into the realms of dreamland How long he had been lying there is not known, but when the watchman found him a west-bound through freight, less than a mile away, was whistling for the Fort Wayne station and in a few moments would have passed the point and doubtless crushed the life out of the drunken man.

The watchman aroused the man from his drunken stupor, Officer Knack called the patrol wagon and soon Frazer was snoring away at the police station with no thought of the terrible danger and death from which he had escaped.

When his case was called in mayor's court this morning, he was a sorry-looking object Officer Knock testified to finding him in his drunken condition. The prisoner denied being drunk. He said he had been using morphine and he must have taken too much of it, but it was pretty evident to the mayor that Fraizer's condition was due to the use of whisky, and he was sent to jail.

Officer Knack says the fellow has been drunk every night since he was released from jail, where he served a fifteen days' sentence for drunkenness, about a week ago.

Dannecker conducted a brief service at the house, after which the remains were conveyed to St. John's church, where the funeral services proper were held, the pastor paying most tender tribute to the departed. Floral offerings profusely bedecked the single casket containing mother and baby girl. The funeral procession, a long one, proceeded to Lindenwood, where the grave received its dead. The pall-bearers were, F. J. Gruber, George H. Kuntz, William Fleming, George H Loeech, Edward Markey and J. W. Pearse.

Samuel M Huntington, a well known railroad man, died last week at his home in Saginaw, Mich Between 1860 and 1870 he resided with his family in this city and was employed at different times as an engineer on both the Wabash and Pittsburg roads

Capt. Jacob A Dorsheimer died yesterday morning of cancer of the mouth, at the age of fifty-two years The funeral will be held at the residence of his daughter, 83 Lillie street, tomorrow morning at 11 30 o'clock, the Rev Briggs officiating The deceased was captain of the Sixty eighth Ohio Volunteer Infantry. EXCITING RUNAWAY.

Miss Katie Korn Has a Thrilling Ride Behind Runaway Steeds.

A team of horses hitched to a hack belonging to Fred Myers, the East Wayne street liveryman, ran away at full tilt and created no little excitement shortly after the noon hour today. The animals, at full gallop, had undisputed right of way on Berry street, running east from Broadway to the corner of Clay street where they were stopped by some man whose act of bravery in all probability saved a young lady's life.

The hack had been sent to the St. Joe hospital to get Miss Katie Korn, a young lady who had been a patient at the hospital a few weeks past, and convey her to a house on East Washington street, between Clay and Monroe streets. After leaving the hospital with Miss Korn the horses became unmanageable owing to a disarrangement of the harness and upon reaching the hard Berry street pavement, Fred Hiel, the driver, lost all control over them. West on Berry street they fairly flew along, and the rumbling and swaying of the heavy hack and the screams of its sole occupant helped to increase the frenzy of the steeds. In front of the residence of E. C. Rurode the wheels of the vehicle struck the curb, and the shock unseated Hiel, who fell head-foremost to the pavement, but fortunately he escaped serious injury. He pluckily arose and followed the runaway team, who were now dashing toward the busier thoroughfares. Strange to say, the horses met with no obstruction and would, no doubt, have been running yet had it not been for the young man who checked them at the corner of Clay street. Miss Korn suffered considerably from the shock, but will recover. This is the first time Mr. Myers' team has run away They have always been docile and the liveryman accounts for the accident as a result of the harness giving way.

CHAMPIONSHIP GAMES.

Base Ball Opens With a Boom in Six Cities Today.

Thousands of lovers of Uncle Sam's particular sport will wend their way to the various ball parks today to witness the opening games of the National league championship season. To their ears the voice of the coacher, and the crack of the bat, as it sends the ball high into the air, only to descend into the hands of some agile fielder, will be music indeed. The cranks will don an extra overcoat and seek a soft spot on the bleaching bench, where, between shivers, they will discuss the relative merits of the combatants

The games today are as follows: New York at Philadelphia; Brooklyn at Baltimore, Boston at Washington, Chicago at St. Louis; Pittsburg at Cincinnati, and Cleveland at Lousville.

Experts pick the winners of the first series in this order Boston, New York, Philadelphia, Brooklyn, Cincinnati and Chicago. The Baltimores have been decided on as tail enders, and Louisville is expected to give them a chase for the place.

Want an Explanation.

FORT WAYNE, April 12, 1892.

To the Editor of the SENTINEL:

As committeeman of the Second ward I desire to say that heretofore the tickets voted at the primary elections have been strung on a string and placed in the box with a list of those who voted, so if any question should arise as to the vote it could be investigated, but this time the box was returned to me empty with no tally sheets nor tickets. Why this was done, I cannot say, but I feel that it is due to the party that this should be explained I make this statement because Mr. Mannix came to me and wanted the tickets counted, and I was compelled to inform him that the tickets were not returned to me. ALEXANDER A. MARTIN.

Mr Patrick Ryan, who was one of the judges in the Second ward, will answer in THE SENTINEL tomorrow the above card of Mr. Martin

PESTILENCE AND FAMINE

A Heartrending Description of the Misery and Want Existing in Georgia.

ATLANTA, GA., April 12.—Pestilence and famine exist in the Exposition Mills factory district as terrible as that in the czar's domain. The district composes over two hundred roughly constructed one and two-room frame houses. The bodies of the sufferers whom death has relieved lie in the same rooms with those whom pneumonia or fever are fast leading to death, who have no one even to hand them a drink of water, who have no clothing or bed covering, who lie about on the floor of the hut they call a home and starve and shiver through the bleakness of the dreary days. There are rooms wherein eight and ten members of one family are stricken down, where pneumonia and fever and measles are attacking their emaciated bodies, where there is no sanitation, no help or protection from the city, no medicine, no food, no fire, no nurses, nothing but torturing hunger and death. "I have been in the slums of New York and other large cities," said Dr. Hawthorne, this morning, "but I can truthfully say that I never saw misery or suffering equal to this."

BENJ. F. SCOTT, editor of the Connersville Democrat, is now issuing a neat and newsy daily paper at that place.

THE Jewish feast of the passover, which commenced last evening and will continue during the week, is to celebrate the deliverance of the children of Israel from the land of Egypt. Every year since Moses led the people away from this bondage they have celebrated this event.

CLOSE upon the heels of Mr. Matthew's announcement that he is a candidate for governor, comes one from W. R Myers, ex-secretary of state, that he is a candidate for secretary of state. Captain Hillegas, of Huntington, and John S. Martin, of Brookville, are also candidates for secretary of state.

VERY few persons realize the high standard of Indiana until shown the statistics of the bureau of labor reports. "A glance at the work named," says the Chicago Herald, "will show that Indiana owns more property to the man than is owned by any other state in the union. Something in the line of educational journals will tell you that the state has a richer school fund than any other commonwealth, and that the percentage of scholarship is better even than Massachusetts with its Harvard, and Connecticut with its Yale. History will tell you that no other state was so decimated on the field of battle. It has more cattle to the acre, more bushels of wheat, more money in the bank, more pianos in the parlors and more diplomas in frames than can be boasted elsewhere from sea to sea."

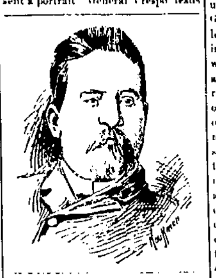
ARCHBISHOP IRELAND, of St. Paul, speaks as follows in regard to Leo XIII: "Leo bids fair to direct for several years yet the onward movement of the age. He has just entered upon his eighty-third year, and while apparently most frail in body, he is healthy and capable of much labor. I saw him at his best a few weeks ago, on the eve of the anniversary of his coronation. He was surrounded by all his cardinals, the prelates of his court, and numerous archbishops and bishops from various countries. The dean of the Sacred College read to him an address of congratulation. The pope, while listening, showed signs of restlessness and fatigue. Then he replied, speaking at first from his seat, and in a calm, unimpassioned manner. Soon, however, he was in the heart of his subject, his eyes gleamed, his cheeks flushed, he arose, and his eloquence of thought and word transfixed his hearers. No one hearing him would have believed the end of his pontificate to be near."

KOSSUTH says that the Hungarians with him in this country first heard "Yankee Doodle" on the Mississippi river, when they immediately recognized it as one of the old national airs of their native land, one played in the dances of that country—and they began immediately to caper and dance as they used to in old Biscay. It has been stated, we know not upon what authority, that the air of "Yankee Doodle" is the same as that of "Lucy Locket," and is as old as the time of Cromwell, when it was called "Nankee Doodle." In the time of the old French war (1755), when the New England troops, commanded by Governor Shirley, were encamped with the regular British troops on the Hudson, near Albany, Dr. Shacksbury, a surgeon of the British army, remodelled the old tune and called it "Yankee Doodle" as a joke, in derision of the New England volunteers, who admired the tune, and it soon became a general favorite throughout the American camp.

DE PALACIO.

The President of the Little Republic of Venezuela.

The little republic of Venezuela is the scene of what appears to be a formidable rebellion against the authority of President Palacio, of whom we present a portrait. General Crespo leads the military side of the revolt, to support which naval operations have been undertaken successfully. The presumption is made that Antonio Guzman Blanco, who for eighteen years was virtually dictator, is at the back of the rebellion, in the hope of regaining power. He is a powerful man and reputed enormously wealthy. Palacio, who professes to believe that the rebellion will be put down easily, is the second of the presidents who have succeeded Blanco. It will be remembered that recently President Harrison reimposed duties on Venezuelan coffee and sugar, because of Venezuela's refusal to enter into reciprocal commercial relations with the United States. Senor Bolet Paraza represents the little republic at Washington.



ROOSTERS CROW IN COURT.

Two Game Chickens Interrupt a Detroit Judge in His Charge to a Jury.

Two crowing roosters destroyed the effect of Judge Chambers' charge to the jury in the recorder's court at Detroit Saturday, and furnished great amusement to the crowd of spectators.

The case was one of arson, and the charge of the judge proceeded in this wise:

"Gentlemen of the jury," said the judge—"Cock-a-doodle-doo," shrieked one rooster—"you have heard the evi" —"Cock-a-doodle-doo," answered the other rooster—"dence on both sides of this case as given by the different"—"Cock-a-doodle-doo,"—"witnesses and the arguments of the prosecutor for the people"—"Cock-a-doodle-doo"—and the attorney for the defendant.

"You have heard the rooster—I—I—mean the defendant—tell where he was on the night of the fire"—"Cock-a-doodle-doo."

The spectators were by this time unable to restrain their laughter, and the judge looked appealingly toward the door-tender, who closed the rear door. But this did not entirely drown the sound of the barnyard fowl, as every once in a while the faint echo of a "cock-a-doodle-doo" would mar the solemnity of the court room and cause a smile to o'erspread the features of the urbane and dignified judge.

The cause of the roosters' presence was afterward explained when they were brought into the court room and introduced as evidence in another case. They were supposed to be game cocks, worth about $10 apiece, but one fellow's beauty was spoiled by having had all his tail feathers pulled out. The other one, known as a "blinker," had only one eye, having lost the other in a hard-fought battle.

CYRUS FIELD HONORED.

President Harrison Gives Him the Consul Ship at Birmingham.

WASHINGTON, April 12.—Cyrus W. Field, jr., of New York, is to be given a place in the foreign service. It is said that he will succeed Mr. Jarrett, consul at Birmingham, England, who has resigned. Mr. Field's efforts to secure employment for himself are rendered necessary, it is said, by the financial reverses which the head of the family has recently suffered. Secretary Tracy, Colonel Elliott F. Shepard and other well known New Yorkers laid Mr Field's desire for a position before the president. He promised to consider the matter but did nothing until Mrs. Garfield, widow of President Garfield, came to Washington and, learning of Mr. Field's application, interested herself in the case. She went at once to the executive mansion and sought an interview with Mr Harrison. The latter inquired the reason of her interest. She replied that she owed everything she had to the kindness of Cyrus W. Field, sr. Then she went on to tell the president that after the death of her husband and in the autumn of 1881, Mr. Field inaugurated a movement looking to the creation of a fund for the maintenance of her children and herself. The president told her that what he had failed to do for Messrs. Tracy, Shepard and others should be done for her. It is not improbable that Mr. Field's name will be sent to the senate today, or not later than the middle of the present week.

AH THERE, BENJAMIN.

Have a Care or Quay Will Burst Your Presidential Bubble.

NEW YORK, April 12.—A special from Philadelphia says there will be no reconciliation between Senator Quay and President Harrison, and as a result, Mr. Harrison may eventually not be a candidate for renomination. Mr. Wannamaker and Congressmen Bingham, O'Neill and Reyburn called on the president a few days ago for the purpose of patching up a peace, but the president surprised the delegation by turning to Mr. Wannamaker and saying: "The less you have to do with Mr. Quay the better it will be for yourself. He is not a fit man to associate with." Then the president said that he was not so certain about accepting the renomination, unless he was assured that the party was harmonious, and that he preferred to stand aside rather than to place himself in the hands of Mr. Quay and some other men who had attempted to dictate terms for renomination. When this was told the senator he was angered. He immediately began to discuss with his fellow senators the availability of Blaine as a presidential candidate, and the boom in the interest of the secretary last week is due to Quay's work.

A WICKED COWBOY

Uses His Revolver in a Card Game in England.

LONDON, April 12.—An American named Michael Mahon has been arrested at Heywood, near Manchester, on the charge of firing a revolver at a companion with whom he was playing cards. Mahon is not a native American, having emigrated to that country from Roscommon early in the '70s. He had seen a good deal of life in the west and has boasted, it is said, of desperate encounters with Indians, having on one occasion helped Buffalo Bill to repulse an attack of Sitting Bull and fifty other Sioux warriors. When he came on to visit the British isles, he brought his revolver with him. At Heywood he sat down to a quiet game of poker and came to the conclusion, after awhile, that his companion was cheating him. Drawing his revolver suddenly, Mahon shot at his fellow player. The bullet fortunately did not take effect, and before Mahon could fire again he was seized and disarmed.

ON THE SCHOOL QUESTION.

The Pope Writes a Letter of Disapproval.

ROME, April 12.—The pope has written a letter to Archbishop Ireland, disapproving of certain criticisms in the Jesuit organ, Civilta Cattolica, on the archbishop's course. The pope is giving much study to the school question in the United States and has received from Cardinal Gibbons, of Baltimore, an interesting sketch on the subject.

THE ASTOR SENSATION.

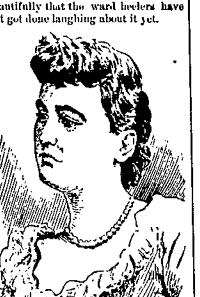
Something About the Noted Family Now Unpleasantly Prominent.

"A scandal in the Astor family? Impossible! They have their faults of course, but as to a question about their women—why, they simply aren't assailable!"

Such was the exclamation among the Four Hundred and of many others; but the report proved to be true. Not only is an Astor accused, but she is the center of the center group, and almost the social head of the family. She is now Mrs. J. Coleman Drayton, and her husband is eager to shoot or slash Mr. Alsop Borrowe on her account.

The Astors are American nobility, if there is such a thing—that is, the wealth has been in the family now four generations, culture has done its prettiest for them, and every scion of the family has married in their own rank. There have been no mesalliances. The original John Jacob Astor founded the family, as every one knows. He was born at Waldorf, Switzerland, in 1763, and died at New York in 1848. He founded the Astor library and several other things, and left $20,000,000 to his oldest son, William Backhouse Astor. William B. died in 1875, aged eighty-three, and after the munificent provisions for all the kindred and many charities were carried out, there was still at least $50,000,000 to divide between his two sons, John Jacob and William.

At this stage nice distinctions became necessary, for old John Jacob's other grandchildren live in New York; so by common consent John Jacob Astor became the head of the family and his wife the very head of the heads and cream of the cream of New York society. She alone was "Mrs. Astor." All the others had to put their initials on their cards. She was originally Miss Augusta Gibbes, of Savannah, and her only child is the Hon William Waldorf Astor, who has done something in literature and diplomacy, ran once for congress from New York city and was turned down so beautifully that the ward heelers have not got done laughing about it yet.



MRS. J. COLEMAN DRAYTON.

This Mrs. Astor died in 1887, and so Mrs. William Astor became simply "Mrs. Astor" and the society head of the family. She was Miss Schermerhorn, daughter of that Abraham Schermerhorn who was worth a million or two and therefore great in his day, though at present he would not be counted as "in it" among the rich. The new "Mrs. Astor" is conspicuously qualified for a social leader. Her mansion on the avenue and her country places, her parlors, and more than all her famous Paris dresses, which the cruel customs officers seized and sold—are they not celebrated in all the papers?

Her four daughters were all beautiful, and Augusta, the third, was the most beautiful of the lot. Ten years ago she married Mr. J. Coleman Drayton, of the noted Drayton family in Philadelphia, and they have three children. "Incompatibility" developed, she made a friend of Mr. Borrowe, and now she is in "retreat" near London, her children are with her husband's friends in Wales, and Mr. Drayton is seeking an opportunity to shed some of Mr. Borrowe's blood.

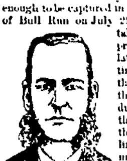
Libby Prison's First Occupant.

The first person to enter the famous Libby prison was Philander A. Streeter. He belonged to Company C, of the Second Vermont infantry. Unfortunate enough to be captured in the first battle of Bull Run on July 21, 1861, he was taken to Libby prison two days later. The distinction that was thrust on him at that time was due to the fact that he was at the head of the line of prisoners marched to the place. "You can bet," he says, "I was glad to put a brick wall between me and the mob that was gathered there in the street. I tell you the bricks and stones flew about as fast as the bullets at Bull Run, for we were the first lot of Yanks the folks had seen."



P. A. STREETER.

Mr. Streeter hurried up to the third floor of the prison and sat by a window on the only chair in the room. His stay in the building lasted until Jan. 3, 1862, when he was exchanged. It did not break him down, as he is a hale and hearty man today. He is now engaged in the paper making business in Holyoke, Mass. His picture is to be one of the features of the old prison which was, it will be remembered, removed to Chicago some time ago.

MISCELLANEOUS.

AS MANY new houses are already decided upon to be built in Lakeside at once, as went up during the entire season last year. The construction of the electric street car line will be commenced in a few days and it is hoped to have the cars running within three months. Lakeside proposes to be the first to give Fort Wayne people the luxury of rapid transit. Her central location is evidenced by the fact, that she has been made a part of the First Ward. The Plea of Insanity.

Cannot be urged in extenuation of the conduct of hosts of people who constantly inflict injury upon themselves, and lay the foundation for serious and disastrous bodily trouble by the use, in season and out of season, upon slight necessity and without discrimination, of drastic vegetable cathartics and poisonous mineral cholagogues notably the various forms of mercury—to relieve simply constipation, a complaint remediable at any stage by the persistent use of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. This famous remedy never gripes, evacuates too copiously or weakens the bowels. If there is any other tonic aperient in or out of the pharmacopoeia of which this can truthfully be said, we are unaware of it. Abandon the fatuous habit of dosing and use this benign regulator, which also sets right weakened stomachs and disordered livers. Rheumatism, neuralgia, sleeplessness, loss of appetite, malaria, debility and kidney complaints are troubles all conquerable by the Bitters.

THE STORY DENIED.

Mrs. Ratno, the Typhus Patient, Did Not Contract the Disease in Baltimore.

BALTIMORE, April 12.—The report from Detroit, Mich, yesterday that typhus fever, which has developed in that city, was brought from Baltimore by a family named Ratno, which came here on the North German Lloyd steamship Karlsrup eight days ago, is believed to be untrue The Karlsrup arrived here twenty two days ago, not eight days, as stated. A remarkable fact is that there was not a birth or death on the Karlsrup during the trip, despite the assertion that there were fifteen deaths from scarlet or other fevers Instead of being the most careless of immigrant ports, as charged in the dispatch, Baltimore has the most carefully conducted and systematic bureau for landing immigrants in America.

An Undisputed Test of Merit.

A medicine that has been a household remedy for over fifty years and used in that time by more than 150,000,000 persons must have great merit Such a medicine is found in BRANDRETH'S PILLS This fact demonstrates the value of these pills better than any statement of the proprietors. It will be observed that the dose required to cure is small One or two pills taken every night for ten or twenty days will cure dyspepsia, costiveness, rheumatism, liver complaint, biliousness, or any disease arising from an impure state of the blood.

BRANDRETH'S PILLS are purely vegetable, absolutely harmless, and safe to take at any time

Sold in every drug and medicine store, either plain or sugar coated.
